

The International Campaign for Justice in Bhopal presents:
The 25th Anniversary Bhopal Survivors Tour in SF-Bay Area

Two 2nd-generation Bhopal survivors Sarita Malviya and Safreen Khan, and campaigners Rachna Dhingra and Sathyu Sarangi, are touring the US and Canada this April and May. The tour is being hosted by the International Campaign for Justice in Bhopal (ICJB). ICJB is a coalition of survivor groups and allies around the world working for justice and a life of dignity for the survivors of the Bhopal Disaster, and for a toxic free future for all.

Monday, May 25–

Reception and Welcome hosted by Dr. Rajiv Bhatia and Human Impact Partners

When: 6-8pm

Where: Human Impact Partners, 274 14th Street, Oakland, CA

Tuesday, May 26

Survivors Story and Panel hosted by over 20 Bay Area organizations

When: 6:30-8:30pm

Where: Berkeley UU Fellowship Hall, 1924 Cedar Street, Berkeley, CA

Wednesday, May 27

Women of Color Resource Center Brown Bag Lunch Series

When: 12:30-2:30pm

Where: Women of Color Resource Center, 1611
Telegraph Ave. #303 Oakland, CA

Survivors Story and Panel hosted by several South Bay organizations

When: 6:30-8:30pm

Where: Room 105, Building 320 (Geology Corner), Stanford University, Palo Alto, CA

Thursday, May 28

Screening of Bhopal Express by 3rd I South Asian Independent Film (Unfortunately, the Bhopalis will not be able to attend this event)

When: 7pm

Where: Pacific Film Archive Theater, Bowditch
@ Bancroft, Berkeley, CA

These Events are Co-sponsored by the following organizations:

International Campaign for Justice in Bhopal
3rd I South Asian Independent Film
Alliance of South Asians Taking Action
Amnesty International, Stanford
Amnesty International USA
Asia Pacific Environmental Network
Association for India's Development, Bay Area
Association for India's Development, Berkeley
Association of South Asian Political Activists
Berkeley Fellowship of UUs, Social Justice Committee
Center for Environmental Health
Ecology Center
Friends of South Asia
Global Alliance for Incinerator Alternatives
Global Community Monitor
Global Exchange
Global Fund for Women
Hesperian Foundation
Human Impact Partners
International POPs Elimination Network
Peoples Health Movement USA
Pesticide Action Network North America
San Jose Peace and Justice Center
Sanskriti
Stanford Center for South Asia
Students for Bhopal
Veterans for Peace, SF Chapter 69
Vietnam Agent Orange Relief and Responsibility Campaign
Women of Color Resource Center
Women's Caucus for Art

For more information contact shana@panna.org or visit <http://survivors.boston4bhopal.org/>